PHILIPPINE EMBASSY IN ISLAMABAD IN COLLABORATION WITH THE PHILIPPINE CONSULATE GENERAL IN KARACHI PARTICIPATES IN THE 16TH MY KARACHI OASIS OF HARMONY INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION

25 April 2019 – As part of its efforts to promote the Philippines as a destination for tourism, business and education, the Philippine Embassy in Islamabad in collaboration with the Philippine Consulate General in Karachi participated in the 16th My Karachi Oasis of Harmony International Exhibition which ran from 05 to 07 April 2019 at the Karachi Expo Center, Karachi, Pakistan.

During the three-day event, people showed great interest in the Philippine booth as shown by the amount of foot traffic and visitors. Many people inquired about holiday packages for the Philippines for tourism purposes. Young visitors also showed interest to study in the Philippines while businessmen expressed interest to visit the Philippines to explore business opportunities especially in the sectors of food and beverages and auto parts.

Provincial Minister of Sindh for Local Government Saeed Ghani visited the Philippine booth and appreciated the Philippine Embassy and Consulate's efforts to promote the country among Pakistani business community and general public.

The 'My Karachi Oasis of Harmony International Exhibition' is an annual event which provides exhibitors opportunities to showcase their products and services to the public.
