Press Release

The Philippine Embassy wishes to inform the public that the former will no longer be affixing the traditional “red ribbon” on all notarized documents, including authentication, acknowledgement, and no objection certificates, in compliance with Philippine laws. The usual gold seal will be maintained. A small eyelet embedded in a folded corner along with a stamp of the Embassy on the back of the last page of the notarized document shall also be observed (Please refer to the pictures above). This new format shall be officially implemented for all notarial requests received starting 03 August 2020.

For the public’s information.
