PHILIPPINE EMBASSY'S CELEBRATION OF 2020 WOMEN'S MONTH

Islamabad, 10 March 2020 — H.E Daniel R. Espiritu led this year's 2020 Women's Month celebration of the Philippine Embassy. This year's theme is "We make change work for women". A series of activities were held on 09 March 2020 inside the Embassy's premises which was attended by the members of the Filipino Community in Islamabad.

A photo exhibit featuring Filipinas with significant contributions throughout Philippine history was launched. An HIV/Awareness Lecture was conducted by Dra. Maria Elena Borromeo who is the UNAIDS Country Director for Pakistan and Afghanistan. Last part of the program was the film showing featuring "The Joy Luck Club", a 1993 American award-winning drama film about the plight of three generations of women in immigrant communities. END
