

PHILIPPINE EMBASSY PARTICIPATES IN ASEAN CHARITY EVENT

The ASEAN missions in Islamabad pooled money to buy books and activity materials for the children of Mashal Model School. Located in the urban slum area of Bari Imam, Mashal Model School, which is also a non-profit organization, is home to approximately 800 students who are victims of all sorts of abuses and internally displaced persons with no state ID living below the poverty line.

Aside from ASEAN-Pakistan relations on government-to-government level, the ASEAN missions also give utmost importance to strengthening people-to-people ties.

The event was a collective effort of the ACI, and was facilitated through a small program attended by the heads of ASEAN missions – the Philippines, Brunei, Indonesia, Malaysia, Myanmar, Thailand and Vietnam.
